Remember the day of your departure from the land of Egypt as long as you live (16:3).

Take utmost care and watch yourselves scrupulously, so that you do not forget the things that you saw with your own eyes and so that they do not fade from your mind as long as you live. And make them known to your children and to your children’s children. The day you stood before ” your God at Horeb, when ” said to Me, “Gather the people to Me that I may let them hear My words, in order that they may learn to revere Me as long as they live on earth, and may so teach their children (4:9 - 10).

Remember what Amalek did to you on your journey, after you left Egypt — how, undeterred by fear of God, he surprised you on the march, when you were famished and weary, and cut down all the stragglers in your rear. Therefore, when ” your God grants you safety from all your enemies around you, in the land that ” your God is giving you as a hereditary portion, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget (25:17 - 19)!

Remember, never forget, how you provoked ” your God to anger in the wilderness (9: 7).

Remember what ” your God did to Miriam on the journey after your left Egypt (24: 9).

Remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy (Ex 20:8).
