Behold, I am the Holy One, God of all flesh. Is anything too wondrous for Me?

Jeremiah 32:27

Thus said the Holy One who is planning it,
the Holy One who is shaping it to bring it about,
Whose name is the Holy One:
Call to Me, and I will answer you,
And I will tell you wondrous things,
Secrets you have not known.
Jeremiah 33:2-3

For I am with you, says the Holy One of Hosts. So I promised you, when you came out of Egypt, and My spirit is still in your midst. Fear not!

Haggai 2:4-5

I will be with him in distress.

Psalm 91:15

God brought us forth from slavery to freedom, from sorrow to joy, from mourning to festivity, from darkness to great light, from servitude to redemption.

Isaiah 31:5

Three keys were not entrusted to an agent: childbirth, rain, resurrection.

Sanhedrin 113a

When the Emperor said to Rabbi Joshua ben Hananiah, ‘I wish to see your God’. He replied: ‘You cannot see him’. ‘Indeed’, said the Emperor, ‘I will see him’. He went and placed the Emperor facing the sun during the summer solstice and said to him, ‘Look up at it’. He replied: ‘I cannot’. Said Rabbi Joshua, ‘If at the sun which is but one of the ministers that attend the Holy Blessing One, you cannot look, how then can you presume to look upon the divine presence’!

Hullin 60a

God can do all things that are impossible according to nature, for God created nature. But it is not to be imagined that God can do things that are impossible according to reason.

Rabbi Abraham Azulai,

Ba’alei Brit Avram 121

I shall try to help you, God, to stop my strength ebbing away, though I cannot vouch for it in advance. But one thing is becoming increasingly clear to me: that You cannot help us, that we must help You to help ourselves … Alas, there does not seem to be much You Yourself can do about our circumstance, about our lives. Neither do I hold You responsible. You cannot help us, but we must help You and defend Your dwelling place in us to the last.

…the mutely insistent appeal of his unfulfilled goal.

Hans Jonas, 153.
